The Entity shall, for the benefit of the Administrator, take all reasonable steps to satisfy itself that all capitalisation monies and other funds passing through the Entity do not represent the proceeds of, and that it does not engage in, any unlawful activity.

The Administrator is required by law to operate AML/CFT and other checks and procedures in respect of all aspects of the provision of the Services on its part to be performed under the Engagement Letter. The time at which such information and documentation is required and the form in which it shall be delivered to the Administrator shall be determined by the Administrator in its absolute discretion. If the Administrator is not provided with any information and documentation it requests to enable it to meet such ongoing obligations, the Administrator shall be entitled to suspend or terminate the provision of the Services to be performed under the Engagement Letter with immediate effect and without liability or responsibility for any direct or indirect loss caused.

By providing such information and documentation, the Entity will be taken to have consented to the onward disclosure of such information to such third parties as shall in the reasonable opinion of the Administrator be required in connection with the Services to be performed under the Engagement Letter or necessary for the proper performance of the obligations of any member of the Maples Group under any applicable law or regulation.

Information and documentation provided to any member of the Maples Group may be subject to disclosure and production pursuant to orders of any court of competent jurisdiction or any competent judicial, governmental or regulatory body, subject to the provisions of the "Confidentiality" section.

The Entity understands and agrees that the Administrator shall be responsible solely for compliance with its own obligations under the AML/CFT Laws and it shall not have any responsibility for ensuring that the Entity is in compliance with any AML/CFT obligations applicable to it.

It shall be a condition precedent to providing the Services to the Entity under the Engagement Letter that the Administrator is satisfied in its absolute discretion, that it has sufficient and appropriate information to discharge its obligations under the AML/CFT Laws.

The Administrator may refuse to perform any or all of its obligations under the Engagement Letter if it determines, in its sole and unfettered discretion, that to do so would constitute a criminal or regulatory offence in Jersey or would otherwise contravene Jersey laws. The Administrator will, if legally permitted to do so, inform the Entity promptly of any decision to refuse to perform an obligation under the Engagement Letter made in accordance with this provision.

FATCA and CRS

The Entity understands and agrees that:

- (a) the Administrator is not obliged to provide any services to the Entity with regard to FATCA or CRS;

Notwithstanding the previous paragraph, the Entity undertakes to provide to the Administrator, no later than 60 days after the earlier of (i) the Effective Date and (ii) the date of the Entity's establishment or incorporation, details of the Entity's classifications for the purposes of FATCA and CRS. In the event that the Entity fails to notify the Administrator of such classifications (or fails to perform such classifications) within such timeframe, the Administrator and/or any director provided by the Administrator to the Entity or to its general partner (as applicable) may, but shall not be obliged to, arrange for the relevant classifications (together with any related reporting required under FATCA and/or CRS) to be performed by another member of the Maples Group at the Entity's expense, in which event the Entity shall provide the Administrator with all information that may be required in connection with such classifications and/or reporting.

Proper Instructions and Control

In performing its duties the Administrator shall be entitled to rely upon Proper Instructions given by, or purporting to be given by, any Director or Authorised Person on behalf of the Entity.

- (a) if between the Entity and any Authorised Person, the orders, directions or regulations of the Entity shall prevail; and

- (b) if between any two Authorised Persons, the matter shall be referred to the Entity for determination.

The Administrator is not required to perform any of the Services requiring Proper Instructions unless it has received such Proper Instructions.

The Administrator may refuse to perform any or all of the Services if, in its sole and unfettered discretion, to do so would constitute a criminal or regulatory offence in the Jersey.

In performing the Services, the Administrator shall at all times be subject to the overall supervision and control of, and review by, the Entity.

In performing the Services, the Administrator may assume, unless and until notified in writing to the contrary by an Authorised Person, that any Proper Instructions received by it are not in any way contrary to or in conflict with any provisions of any documents to which the Entity is subject, or any votes, resolutions, or proceedings of the Directors or the Members. No provision of the Engagement Letter or these Standard Terms shall be construed so as to oblige the Administrator to assume any responsibility whatsoever for ensuring that Proper Instructions are not in any way contrary to or in conflict with any documents to which the Entity is subject, or any votes, resolutions, or proceedings of the Directors or the Members.

fully with the agents or delegates of the Administrator; and

- (j) promptly upon their adoption, provide the Administrator with properly certified copies or authenticated copies of the Constitutional Documents and any agreements made between the Members from time to time and (promptly upon their adoption, execution or passing (as appropriate)) all amendments or supplements thereto and of all deeds, documents, votes, resolutions and other proceedings as may be necessary for the Administrator to carry out the Services. The Administrator shall not be deemed to have received notice of any resolutions, any changes contained in any amended Constitutional Documents and any agreements made between the Members or any deed or document unless and until the same are delivered to it pursuant to the provisions of this section.

Notwithstanding the sub-paragraph immediately above, to the extent that any amendment to the Constitutional Documents and any agreements made between the Members shall affect the provision of the Services, the Administrator shall not be bound by or be deemed to have notice of any change contained in the amended Constitutional Documents and any agreements made between the Members, unless the Administrator shall have consented to such change.

Right to Receive Advice

If the Administrator shall at any time be in doubt as to any action to be taken or omitted by it in the performance of the Services, it may request and shall receive directions or advice from the Entity, or may obtain such legal, tax, financial administrative or other advice, as it may, acting reasonably, deem appropriate, as well as employ services from third parties on behalf of the Entity and may, but shall not be required to, act thereon. The reasonable costs of obtaining any directions or advice pursuant to this section shall be borne by the Entity. Where any such directions or advice are received by the Administrator under this section, the Administrator shall have no liability for any action taken or thing done (or omitted to be taken or done) pursuant thereto.

Legal Action

The Administrator shall not be required to take any legal action on behalf of the Entity other than as may be expressly agreed in writing. In no circumstances shall the Administrator take any such action unless it and its directors, officers, employees and Affiliates are fully indemnified and remunerated to their reasonable satisfaction for costs and liabilities.

Responsibility and Limitation of Liability

No Indemnified Person shall be liable to the Entity or any Member or former Member or any other person for any damage, loss, claims, proceedings, demands, liabilities, costs or expenses whatsoever suffered or incurred by the Entity or any Member or former Member or any other person at any time from any cause whatsoever or arising out of or in connection with the Engagement Letter or related to the performance or non-performance of the Services provided under the Engagement Letter unless arising directly as a result of the Indemnified Person's actual fraud, wilful default or negligence. The remaining provisions of this "Responsibility and Limitation of Liability" section shall not be construed so as to limit the generality of this paragraph.

Notwithstanding anything in the Engagement Letter or these Standard Terms to the contrary, neither the Administrator nor any of the Indemnified Persons shall be liable in tort, statutory duty, pre-contract or misrepresentation (other than fraudulent misrepresentation) or otherwise for (i) any consequential, indirect or special loss or damage; or (ii) any economic losses (including loss of revenues, profits, contracts, business or anticipated savings), arising out of or in connection with the Engagement Letter, in each case whether or not the Administrator or that other Indemnified Person has been advised of the possibility of such loss or damage and howsoever incurred. For the avoidance of doubt the Administrator and the other Indemnified Persons shall not be so liable for any loss of goodwill or reputation.

The Administrator shall be entitled for all purposes to rely, without further enquiry, on:

- (a) Proper Instructions; and
- (b) the authenticity and accuracy of all information and communications (including by fax and email) of whatever nature received by the Administrator in good faith in connection with the performance of the Services.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this "Responsibility and Limitation of Liability" section of these Terms, the Administrator shall not in any circumstance be responsible or liable to any person for any loss arising by virtue of any actions taken or omitted to be taken by it in consequence of any Proper Instructions.

The Administrator shall not be liable for any losses suffered by the Entity or any Member, whether caused by delays or otherwise, resulting from illegible, unclear or late Proper Instructions or communications from the Entity, the Members, potential Members or any agents thereof, but shall use its reasonable endeavours to receive clarification of illegible or unclear communications and to process late instructions as soon as possible thereafter.

The Administrator shall not be obliged to process the issue or redemption of shares or interests (if applicable) unless and until the Administrator is satisfied that it has received all the necessary documents it requires to comply with the AML/CFT Laws applicable to it, and the Administrator shall not be responsible for any loss, damage or costs attributable to any delay in issuing or redeeming shares or interests as a result of the exercise of its rights under this section.

The Administrator shall, as soon as practicable after receipt, send to the Entity (in accordance with the notice procedures set below) all writs, summons and other similar documents addressed to the Entity and received by the Administrator and shall be under no further liability in relation thereto having acted as aforesaid.

No person shall be found to have committed actual fraud, wilful default or negligence under the Engagement Letter unless or until a court of competent jurisdiction has reached a final non-appealable determination to that effect.

For avoidance of doubt, nothing in the Engagement Letter or these Standard Terms will limit or exclude the liability of an Indemnified Person for death or personal injury resulting from negligence.

Unless caused by their actual fraud, the maximum aggregate liability of the Administrator and/or all of the Indemnified Persons under the Engagement Letter and/or these Standard Terms shall be limited to an amount not exceeding three times the fees paid to the Administrator for the Services in the twelve month period prior to:

- (a) the final non-appealable determination of liability by a court of Jersey; or
- (b) the termination of the Administrator's engagement, whichever is greater.

The provisions of this "Responsibility and Limitation of Liability" section shall survive the termination of the Administrator's engagement.

Indemnity

The Entity agrees to indemnify (on a full indemnity basis) and hold harmless the Indemnified Persons against all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, proceedings, claims, judgments, demands, costs, expenses or disbursements of any kind (including, without limitation, legal fees, costs and expenses) whatsoever (an "Indemnified Loss") which they or any of them may incur or be subject to over any claim or matter arising under or in connection with the Engagement Letter or as a result of the performance of the Engagement Letter or as a result of the performance of the Services and/or arising out of, or in connection with any delay or failure by the Entity to perform its obligations under the Engagement Letter, except to the extent that the same are a result of the actual fraud, wilful default or negligence of the relevant Indemnified Person and this indemnity shall expressly inure to the benefit of any such Indemnified Person existing or future.

An Indemnified Person shall be entitled to receive regular advances from the Entity to cover the cost of defending an Indemnified Loss provided that the Indemnified Person enters into a written agreement that all such advances shall be repaid to the Entity (without interest) if a court of Jersey has reached a final non-appealable determination that the Indemnified Person is not entitled to the indemnity under the first paragraph of this section.

In relation to all indemnities contained in this "Indemnity" section and all rights under the Engagement Letter and/or these Standard Terms which benefit the Indemnified Persons who are not a party to the Engagement Letter, the Administrator shall hold the benefit of such indemnities and rights on trust for such Indemnified Persons.

If an Indemnified Person is found to have committed actual fraud, wilful default or negligence all advances made pursuant to the paragraph immediately above shall be reimbursed to the Entity.

The provisions of this "Indemnity" section shall survive the termination of the Administrator's engagement.

Anti-bribery

The Administrator will:

- (a) comply with all applicable laws, statutes, regulations relating to anti-bribery and anti-corruption including but not limited to the Corruption (Jersey) Law 2006 (the "Corruption Law");
- (b) not engage in any activity, practice or conduct which would constitute an offence under sections 1, 2 or 6 of the Corruption Law if such activity, practice or conduct had been carried out in Jersey; and
- (c) have and shall maintain in place throughout the term of the Administrator's engagement its own policies and procedures, including but not limited to adequate procedures under the Corruption Law, to ensure compliance with the Corruption Law, and will enforce them where appropriate.

Force Majeure

In these Standard Terms, the expression "Force Majeure" shall mean each (or combinations) of the following causes affecting the performance by a party of its obligations under the Engagement Letter and/or these Standard Terms:

- (c) outbreak of war, hostilities, riot, civil disturbance, act of terrorism;
- (d) strikes and labour disputes of all kinds (other than strikes or labour disputes of the party claiming the Force Majeure event);
- (e) compliance with any law or governmental order; and
- (f) any cause or circumstances of any kind beyond the reasonable control of the party seeking to rely on the delay.

If any party is prevented or delayed in the performance of any of its obligations under the Engagement Letter and/or these Standard Terms by any of the events in the first paragraph of this section, that party shall as soon as practicable serve notice in writing on the other party, specifying the nature and extent of the circumstances giving rise to Force Majeure. Subject to service of such notice and to the fourth paragraph of this section, such party shall have no liability in respect of the performance of such of its obligations as are prevented by the Force Majeure events, or for any loss or damage suffered by the other party as a result of such non-performance, during the continuation of such events, and for such time after they cease as is necessary for that party, using all reasonable endeavours to recommence its affected operations in order for it to perform its obligations.

If any party is prevented from performing its obligations for a continuous period in excess of three months, such party may terminate the Administrator's engagement immediately on service of written notice upon the party so prevented, in which case no party shall have any liability to the other except that rights and liabilities which accrued prior to such termination shall continue to subsist (save that the Responsibility, Limitation, Liability, Indemnity and Release provisions and the Confidentiality provisions shall remain in force).

The party claiming to be prevented or delayed in the performance of any of its obligations under the Engagement Letter and/or these Standard Terms by reason of Force Majeure shall use reasonable endeavours to bring the Force Majeure event to a close or to find a solution by which the Services may be performed despite the continuance of the Force Majeure event.

Termination

The Administrator's engagement in accordance with these Standard Terms shall continue until either (a) the execution of a service agreement by the Entity and the Administrator or (b) the termination of the Administrator's engagement in accordance with these Standard Terms.

The Entity or the Administrator may terminate the Administrator's engagement:

- (a) by giving not less than three (3) months' notice in writing to the other party;
- (b) at any time if the other party commits any breach of its obligations under these Standard Terms and;
 - (i) such breach is not capable of remedy; or
 - (ii) where such breach is capable of remedy fails, within thirty days of receipt of notice served by the other party requiring it to do so, to make good such breach; or

Upon termination of its engagement, the Administrator shall, at the expense of the Entity or its liquidator, as the case may be, deliver to the Entity, or as it shall direct, all books of account, records, registers, correspondence, documents and all assets relating to the affairs of or belonging to the Entity and in the possession of or under the control of the Administrator and shall take all necessary steps to vest in the Entity or any new administrator or liquidator, as the case may be, any assets previously held in the name of or to the order of the Administrator on behalf of the Entity.

Data Protection

In providing its services and otherwise fulfilling its obligations to the Entity, the Administrator may from time to time be required to process information which:

- (a) constitutes 'personal data' as defined in Article 2 of the Data Protection (Jersey) Law 2018 ("DP Law"); and
- (b) is disclosed to or otherwise made available to the Administrator by or on behalf of the Entity ("Relevant Personal Data").

If and to the extent the Administrator acts as a 'controller' (as defined in Article 1(1) of DP Law) in respect of the Relevant Personal Data, the Administrator may process the Relevant Personal Data in accordance with the applicable data protection law (including GDPR) and the Administrator's privacy notice, which is available online at <https://www.maples.com/privacy/> or upon request.

If and to the extent the Administrator acts as a 'processor' (as defined in Article 1(1) of GDPR) in respect of the Relevant Personal Data, the provisions of the 'Data Processing Addendum' (in the form available at <https://www.maples.com/privacy/>) shall apply in respect of any processing of Relevant Personal Data undertaken by the Administrator.

Electronic Communication

The Administrator may communicate by e-mail in providing the Services. E-mail communication is not secure and can be subject to possible delay, data corruption, interception, amendment or loss. The Entity accepts the inherent risks of communicating by e-mail including the possible unauthorised interception, redirection, copying or review of e-mails and attachments and the transmission of viruses. The use of e-mail by the Administrator to communicate and transmit information will not in and of itself constitute a breach of the Administrator's confidentiality obligations under these Standard Terms.

The terms of this "Electronic Communication" section shall survive the termination of the Administrator's engagement.

Use of Technology and Artificial Intelligence

In providing services to the Entity, the Administrator may use a range of technologies provided by third-party service providers. Such technologies may include, but are not limited to, those that facilitate minute-taking, document digitisation, document automation, audio transcription, remote conferencing, workflow management, electronic discovery, and digital signature, including those that may utilise artificial intelligence capabilities and/or cloud-based systems. The Administrator exercises reasonable care and skill in selecting and utilising such technologies in accordance with its legal, regulatory, and professional obligations, as well as these Standard Terms, including by employing appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect the security and privacy of any information shared with the relevant service providers.

No Commercial Advice, Partnership or Employment

For the avoidance of doubt, the Entity agrees that the Administrator is not responsible for the commercial structuring of the Entity, or for the rendering of investment, commercial, accounting, legal or any other advice whatsoever to the Entity or any other person.

Nothing contained in these Standard Terms shall constitute a partnership between the parties.

The directors, officers, employees or agents of the Administrator shall not be deemed to be employees of the Entity or entitled to any remuneration or other benefits from the Entity.

The Administrator shall be entitled to provide services of a like nature to those provided under these Standard Terms to any other person, firm or corporation.

Non-Exclusivity

The Administrator shall be at liberty to provide services of a like nature to any other person or persons it may think fit whether for its own account or that of any other person.

Neither the Administrator nor any company, partnership or other person associated with the Administrator shall, in consequence of the appointment of the Administrator pursuant to the Engagement Letter or in consequence of any transaction entered into by the Entity with the Administrator (or with any such associate), be liable to account to the Entity for any profits (whether disclosed or not) accruing to the Administrator (or to any such associate) from, or by virtue of, any such transaction.

Assignment

The Administrator may assign or novate its obligations to any other member of the Maples Group who is licensed to provide the relevant services. No aspect of the Administrator's engagement or of these Standard Terms may be otherwise assigned or novated by any party save with the prior written consent of the other party.

Delegation of Services

The Administrator shall be entitled to appoint nominees, agents and delegates (each, a "Delegate") as it sees fit to perform in whole or in part any of the Services. The Administrator shall remain liable for any loss caused by such Delegate but only to the extent that it would have been liable for such loss under the Agreement if such loss were caused by the Administrator itself. The fees and other remuneration of any such Delegates shall (unless specifically agreed otherwise) be paid by the Administrator out of its own fees received pursuant to the Engagement Letter.

Complaints

The Administrator takes any complaint in regard to the Services it provides very seriously. Any complaint should be addressed in the first instance to the relationship point of contact at the Administrator in writing setting out the details of the complaint. The complainant should receive an acknowledgement of the complaint within five business days, including details of the actions being taken to investigate and resolve the issue. Should an acknowledgement not be received, the complaint should be addressed to the managing director of the Administrator. The Administrator will keep the complainant informed about the progress of the investigation and the actions taken to resolve it.

Records

During the continuance of the Administrator's engagement, the Administrator shall retain in safe custody all Entity Records and upon request in writing (but subject to the paragraph below) the Administrator shall deliver the Entity Records to the Entity. If so requested, the Administrator shall be permitted to take copies of any of the Entity Records and to retain such copies.

Upon the termination of the Administrator's engagement, the Administrator shall deliver to the Entity or to such other person as the Entity may direct, the Entity Records which are in its possession provided, however, that (i) the Administrator shall not be required to make any such delivery or payment until full payment shall have been made to the Administrator of all its fees, compensation, costs and expenses due to it under the provisions of the Engagement Letter and/or these Standard Terms and (ii) the Administrator shall retain copies of such records as it deems necessary for compliance with the laws of Jersey.

All Administrator Records shall at all times be and remain the property of the Administrator and not of the Entity. The Entity acknowledges that the Administrator Records are confidential to the Administrator and constitute proprietary information of the Administrator. The Administrator Records shall be retained at all times by the Administrator and may not be inspected or copied by the Entity or any officer, employee or agent of the Entity without the consent of the Administrator, which consent may be withheld in the Administrator's reasonable discretion.

If at any time (whether during the continuance of the Administrator's engagement or thereafter) the Administrator shall consent to any of the Administrator Records being inspected and/or copied by the Entity or any officer, employee or agent of the Entity, such consent shall not in any way constitute a waiver of the Administrator's rights in relation to the Administrator Records nor confer any right of the Entity or any officer, employee or agent of the Entity to inspect and/or copy any of the Administrator Records on any subsequent occasion.

Notices

Any notice or other communication given under these Standard Terms shall be in writing and signed by or on behalf of the party giving it and shall be served by delivering it personally or sending it by pre-paid recorded delivery or registered post (or registered airmail in the case of an address for service outside Jersey) or fax or email to the address and for the attention of the relevant party set out in the paragraph below (or as otherwise notified by that party). If any provision of the Engagement Letter or these Standard Terms shall be found by any court to be invalid or unenforceable, such invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect the other provisions of the Engagement Letter or these Standard Terms, as applicable, which shall remain in full force and effect.

If any provision of the Engagement Letter or these Standard Terms is so found to be invalid or unenforceable but would be valid or enforceable if some part of the provision were modified, the provision in question shall apply with such modification(s) as may be necessary to make it valid.

Entire Agreement

The Engagement Letter, together with these Standard Terms, supersedes all previous agreements between the Entity and the Administrator for the provision of registered office, company secretary and related administrative services to the Entity, and sets out the entire agreement and understanding between the parties relating to its subject matter.

Third Party Rights

A person who is not a party to the Engagement Letter may not, in its own right or otherwise, enforce any term of the Engagement Letter or these Standard Terms except that the Administrator shall be entitled to claim and enforce any rights benefiting any of Indemnified Persons for and on their behalf.

Notwithstanding any other term of the Engagement Letter or these Standard Terms, the consent of any person who is not a party to the Engagement Letter (including, without limitation, any Indemnified Person) is not required for any amendment to, or variation, release, rescission or termination of the Administrator's engagement.

The provisions of this "Third Party Rights" section shall survive the termination of the Administrator's engagement.

Variation

No amendment or variation of the Engagement Letter or these Standard Terms shall be valid unless it is in writing and signed by or on behalf of each party. Provided that the Engagement Letter and/or these Standard Terms may be amended by the Administrator to the extent that an amendment is required to ensure the Administrator's ongoing compliance with applicable laws and regulations including but not limited to the AML/CFT Laws. The Entity's continuing acceptance of the Services after notice of any such amendment shall be regarded as acceptance of such amendment.

Governing Law and Jurisdiction

The Engagement Letter, these Standard Terms and any dispute, claim, suit, action or proceeding of whatever nature arising out of or in any way related to them or their formation (including any non-contractual disputes or claims) are governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with Jersey law.

Each of the parties irrevocably agrees that the Jersey courts shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine any claim, suit, action or proceeding, and to settle any disputes, which may arise out of or are in any way related to or in connection with the Engagement Letter ("Proceedings"), and, for such purposes, irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts. The parties waive any objection to Proceedings in such courts on the grounds of venue or on the grounds that Proceedings have been brought in an in appropriate forum.
